Dixon Correctional Institute Hosts Spring Arts & Crafts Show

Event to feature festivities and handcrafted inmate arts, crafts, & furniture

BATON ROUGE, La. – Dixon Correctional Institute will host its second annual spring Arts and Crafts Show at the prison 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. on Saturday, March 25, 2023. The show is a family event featuring inmate-made hobby crafts. Some of the items for sale include handmade jewelry, leather crafts, paintings, iron works, purses, belts, swings, rocking chairs, and tables.

In addition to the arts and crafts, there will also be great food as well as activities for children that include games and prizes.

Cost to get into the Arts and Crafts Show is $5 at the gate, cash only. Children six and under get in free. All transactions are cash only. There will be an ATM machine available at the prison.

Dixon Correctional Institute is located at 5568 Highway 68, Jackson, LA, 70748.
